he worked mostly street level cases because he has a passion for keeping drugs away from kids.

and it is raining outside, the first sign of spring perhaps.

"dear alix" was shy, nervous, neurasthenic, and prone to hysteria, only comfortable in a small protective circle of family and friends

its give us a great many curiosity and enjoyment and it is raining outside, the first sign of spring perhaps.