there are three kinds of bronchodilators, and your doctor will prescribe the best one for your situation.
ask your pharmacist or doctor what is available.

first, i am prepared to admit that i am a phoney, sycophantic arse-kisser and that i am additional of one than mr johnson (or my husband).

i also get swelling, particular if i sit with my ankle in the same position for long periods - eg long car journeys.

is mounting evidence that prisoners may have experienced excruciating pain during their executions.
