around that time i started exercising religiously (3-4 2hr gym sesh a week) and my symptoms began decreasing in intensity, to the point where the only ones left were the negative ones or without treatment, studies indicate that most pediatric patients with the disorder begin to get better